

"BIRDING" IN THE KLAMATH BASIN

Obsidian Bus Trip: Tue & Wed, March 5-6, 2019

Leaders: Rick Ahrens, Sharon Cutsforth

Load bus at 7:30 a.m., depart at 8:00

Bald Eagles & assorted waterfowl

Tundra Swans on the water

BACK BY POPULAR REQUEST! This interesting and fun trip to view birds in the Klamath Basin is a great winter outing. Local naturalist and fellow Obsidian, Rick Ahrens always makes the trip more enjoyable by sharing his vast knowledge of the natural world. Plus, he is an expert at sighting and identifying birds. While we can't guarantee just what birds you will see, here are a few highlights from previous trips: Snow Geese flying in at dusk, turning the ground white and filling the air with sound; Eagles on the ice at Klamath Lake and hunting in the snow covered fields; Night Herons roosting in the trees along the Link River and a large number of Goldeneye Ducks on the river; Hundreds of Tundra Swans floating on the water, looking like a huge white island; Large numbers of ducks, geese, birds of prey and perching birds. Who knows what special sights this year will bring!

Cost of trip includes: Transportation in a luxury motor coach with experienced driver; overnight accommodations, plus full continental breakfast, evening soup & cookies at Best Western Olympic Inn Klamath Falls; Wednesday lunch at The Black Bear Restaurant.

BRING A SACK LUNCH FOR TUESDAY. Dress warm; bring your camera, binoculars & spirit of adventure

Cost: Members $195; $199 Nonmembers - $50.00 deposit at registration, balance due February 15th

Reservation & payment instructions call: Judy Adamcyk, 541-302-8160

Online sign up is not available for this trip.

Please make checks payable to Obsidian Bus Trips Account.