

OBSIDIANS FEBRUARY POTLUCK

John Muir's Strategies to Save the Earth

Barbara Mossberg will entertain us with stories of John Muir's strategies to save the earth. Muir's writings about wilderness transformed its definition from "wasteland" to something we love and want to preserve; and led to laws creating our national parks and federal lands. Ms. Mossberg is a prominent figure on the national and international stage of Muir studies. She is a Fulbright scholar, prizewinning poet, inspirational speaker and actor.
