

Two Overnight Snow Trips

A summary of each trip follows. The details are on the Home Page under “Extended Trips” and will also be available in the trip descriptions after the registrations open. Please read them carefully!

Shelter Cove Resort February 5-7, 2019

The Shelter Cove trip is back by popular demand! Join us for 3 days of downhill or xc skiing, snowshoeing, or just sitting by the fire in a beautiful lodge overlooking Odell Lake. We will be staying in Kokanee C & D; rooms are shared. Check out the setting and lodging at www.sheltercoveresort.com. Breakfasts and lunches on your own; dinners prepared by the participants, lodging, and trip fees are included.

Online sign up for members will open Sat., December 1. Non-members - December 4
Cost for members - $120; non-members - $125
Maximum: 16 persons
Leader: Chris Shuraleff
Assistant Leaders: Jane Hackett

Odell Lake at sunrise. Chris Stockdale, 2015

Elk Lake Resort March 13-15, 2019

Another adventure playing in the snow! Wide open vistas; lots of sun! A cure for the winter blahs!

Elk Lake Resort is 11 miles west of Mt Bachelor on Cascade Lakes Highway; the road is closed in the winter. Snow vans will transport participants and our gear either the entire way or part way and we will ski/snowshoe the rest of the way. Check out the resort at www.elklakeresort.net. We will occupy new “cabins” 22 & 26. Activities will include xc skiing, snowshoeing and just relaxing in the cabins. Continental breakfasts and dinners are included; preparation and clean-up will be shared by the participants.

Elk Lake in winter

Online sign up for members will open Saturday, Jan 19; non-members - Jan 22.
Cost for members - $210; non-members - $215
Maximum: 15 persons
Leader: Lana Lindstrom